Part-C

Answer the following questions in 25-30 words

Question :- (1) Describe the meeting of Banda Singh Bahadur and Guru Gobind Singh ji.

Answer: - The original name of Banda Bahadur was Madho Das. He was a Bairagi. During the last days of his life Guru Gobind Singh ji visited south. There Madho Das came in contact with Guru Ji in Nanded. He was very impressed by the great personality of Guru Ji and became his man. Guru Ji gave him the title of brave and renamed him Gurbax Singh. Guru Ji sent him to Punjab to lead Sikhs. In Punjab he became popular by the name of 'Banda Bahadur'.

Question :- (2) Describe the main causes of early success of Banda Singh Bahadur.

Answer: - Banda Singh Bahadur achieved early success in his military campaign against the Mughals. Guru Gobind Singh ji sent Hukamnamas to the Sikhs to rally under the Banda Bahadur's command. He had a support of notable Sikh generals like Binod Singh, Khan Singh and others. Banda Bahadur was fighting against the local Mughal officials who were corrupt and tyrannical. The masses supported the Sikhs in their campaigns.

Question: - (3) Write a note on the conquest of Samana by Banda Singh Bahadur.

Answer: - Banda Bahadur attacked Samana on November 26, 1709 because the jalads who were responsible for the martyrdom of Guru Teg Bahadur and younger Sahibzadas of Guru Gobind Singh belonged to Samana. A battle continued in the streets of city for many hours. The Sikhs killed 10,000 Muslims and destroyed the city. The families of the victims were killed. Banda Singh Bahadur also got a lot of money from here.

Question: - (4) Write a note on the martyrdom of Banda Singh Bahadur.

Answer: - Banda Singh Bahadur and his Sikh soldiers were arrested at Gurdas Nangal. They were taken first to Lahore and then to Delhi. Banda Bahadur was publically insulted at Delhi. He was badly tortured before his execution. The executioner then hacked his child, Ajay Singh, into pieces. His flesh was plucked out with iron rods. In this manner, Banda Singh Bahadur was martyred in 19 June, 1716 at Delhi.

Part-D

Answer the following questions in 45- 50 words

Question: - (1) Write about the battle for Chappar Chiri (Sirhind).

Answer: - The real target of Banda Singh Bahadur was to conquer Sirhind. Subedar Wazir Khan had troubled Guru Gobind Singh ji throughout his stay in Punjab and responsible for the martyrdom of the two younger Sahibzadas and Mata Gujari Ji. Therefore Banda Singh wanted to take revenge from the Subedar Wazir Khan. As he advanced towards Sirhind thousands of people gathered to fight under the command of Banda Bahadur. A fierce battle took place between the army of Banda Bahadur and Wazir Khan on May 22, 1710 at Chappar-Chiri, 16 kilometers to the east of Sirhind. A large number of soldiers of the enemy were killed by the Sikh soldiers. After the victory of Chappar-Chira Banda Bahadur attacked the front of Sirhind. The Sikhs became successful in capturing the Sirhind. The dead body of Wazir Khan was hung on a tree. Sucha Nand the Diwan of Wazir Khan was arrested.

Question: - (2) Describe the battle of Gurdas Nangal.

Answer: - The Mughals were very infuriated by the continuous success of Banda Bahadur. To take revenge they attacked Banda Bahadur's army. The Sikhs fought bravely but had to recede toward Gurdas Nangal. The Sikhs took refuge in the haveli of Duni Chand and dug a trench around the fort and fill it with water to keep away the enemy. The Sikhs fought bravely against Mughals and the Mughal army suffered a heavy loss. The siege of Mughals continued for eight months. As a result the food reserves with the Sikhs were finished. It became impossible for the Sikhs to fight under these circumstances. On December 7, 1715 A.D. the Mughals became successful in occupying the haveli. Banda Bahadur and 200 of his companion were arrested.

Question: - (3) What were the causes of the failure and fall of Banda Singh Bahadur?

Answer: - Banda Singh's failure was due to the causes which were beyond his control. Banda Singh Bahadur had to face the mighty forces of the Mughal Government. Emperor Farukh Saiyar's vigorous rule checked the advances of Banda Bahadur. Banda Bahadur had limited resources for the task of fighting against the Mughal Government. Lack of discipline and defective organization of Banda Bahadur's followers also do a lot to his fall. Differences between Bandai Khalsa and Tatva Khalsa also weakened his position. Banda Bahadur had begun to violate Guru Gobind Singh Ji's instructions so he lost the faith and sympathies of the Sikhs. Banda Bahadur's attempt was the first of its kind therefore he could not make a correct estimate of the power of the enemy

Answer: In the beginning, the Dal Khalsa has 65 jathas or bands each under a Sikh Sardar. In 1758, these 65 jathas or bands of Dal Khalsa were merged into 12 bigger jathas or bands each with a distinctive badge and banner. These divisions or 12 jathas were called Misls.

Question: - (5) What do you know about Gurmata?

Answer: The decisions taken by the Sarbat Khalsa in the presence of Guru Granth Sahib in Amritsar at Akal Takht were called Gurmata. These decisions were obligatory for the Sikh chiefs. The decisions were related to the security of Sikh Panth, joint military strategies and settlement of mutual disputes.

Question: - (6) Write the main features of guerilla mode of fighting of Dal Khalsa?

Answer: The most important characteristic of the Dal Khalsa was its mode of fighting. The Sikhs faced their enemy through guerilla warfare. Due to limited resources, as compared to Mughals, the Sikhs adopted guerilla Warfare. The Sikhs suddenly attacked the enemy and inflict heavy losses on them. By the time the enemy got ready, the Sikhs again escaped into the forests.

Part-D

Answer the following questions in 45- 50 words

Question :- (1) Write the names any six Misls and their founders.

Answer: -

1. Faizalpuria Misl	-	Nawab Kapur Singh.
2. Ahluwalia Misl	-	Jassa Singh Ahluwalia
3. Sukrachakia Misl	-	Charat Singh
4. Ramgarhia Misl	-	Jassa Singh Ramgarhia
5. Kanahia Misl	-	Jai Singh Kanahia.
6. Bhangi Misl	-	Chhaja Singh

Question: - (2) Write a note on Buddha Dal and Taruna Dal.

Answer: When Zakria Khan failed to crush the power of Sikhs, he tried to reach an understanding with them. He hoped that the Sikhs would give up but he was mistaken. When Sikhs got the breathing time, they again organized themselves in Jathas. All the jathas constituted Dal Khalsa. There were two main divisions of this Dal - the Buddha Dal and the Taruna Dal. The Buddha Dal was the army of the old veterans most of whom were above the age of 40 years. The Taruna Dal consisted of the army of the young. The Taruna Dal was divided into five bands each under a separate Sardar. Each jatha had 1300 to 2000 men. Both the Buddha Dal and Taruna Dal worked against their common enemy under the leadership of Nawab Kapur Singh. Later on the chief commander of Dal Khalsa was Jassa Singh Ahluwalia.

Question: - (3) Write a note on Rakhi system.

Answer: Taking advantage of the weakness of Mughal Government, the Sikh Misldars introduced a protective system of influence called 'Rakhi' in certain areas of Punjab. A village which sought protection of a Misl chief against loot, theft or molestation of any kind by Government troops or any other foreign invaders was placed under Rakhi. For this the village had to pay one-fifth of the estimated revenue of the village in two installments. The motive of the villages in paying the protection money to the Sikh Misldars was to save themselves from repeated attacks.

Question: - (4) Write a note on Nawab Kapur Singh Faizalpuria.

Answer: Nawab Kapur Singh was the first great leader of Sarbat Khalsa after the martyrdom of Banda Singh Bahadur. He was the founder of the Faizalpuria Misl. During 1734-48 he was practically the head of the Sarbat Khalsa in all religious and political affairs. He was a great warrior so he got the title of Nawab and a Jagir from the Governor of Lahore. He organized Dal Khalsa in 1748 and gave its command to Jassa Singh Ahluwalia. Nawab Kapur Singh was died in 1753.

Question: - (5) Write the main features of military administration of Dal Khalsa?

Answer: Cavalry was the important organ of the army of the Dal Khalsa. To fight without horse was considered an insult by the Sikh so every Sikh in the Dal Khalsa army was a good horse-rider. The horses of the Sikhs were well trained. In the Dal Khalsa army infantry was considered to be of little importance. The function of this section of army was only to keep watch. There was absence of artillery in the army of Dal Khalsa. In the battle the Sikhs used swords, spears, bows and arrows, khandas and guns. There was no fixed rule for the recruitment in the Dal Khalsa. The Sikhs joined Dal Khalsa according to their will. No written record was kept of their names and salaries. The soldiers of Dal Khalsa were not given any regular pay. They were given only a share of the loot. The Sikhs faced their enemy through guerilla warfare.

Part-D

Answer the following questions in 45-50 words

Question: - (1) Explain the Treaty of Bhairowal.

Answer: - A British Resident appointed by the Governor General would stay in Lahore. The Administration of the Lahore Kingdom would be run by a council of Regency of eight Sardars till the time Maharaja Dalip Singh was a minor. The council of Regency would look after the administrative work on the advice of the British Resident. Maharani Jindan was disassociated from the Kingdom.

Question: - (2) Why did the British not Annex Punjab to their Empire after the First Anglo Sikh War?

Answer: - Although the Sikhs were defeated in First Anglo Sikh War but still the Sikh soldiers were camping at Lahore, Amritsar, Peshawar, etc. The British did not want to fight with those soldiers. Lord Harding did not want to increase the expenditure by annexing Punjab. The Sikh Kingdom was a buffer between Afghanistan and the British Empire. Lord Harding wanted to enter into such a treaty with the Punjabis which could weaken them.

Question: - (3) What do you know about Maharaja Dalip Singh?

Answer: - Maharaja Dalip Singh was the last Sikh ruler of the state of Lahore. He was a minor at the time of first Anglo-Sikh war. Therefore, according to the Treaty of Bhairowal in 1846, a Councils of Regency was established to run the administration of Lahore.
